HANDICAP RACE IS WON BY STROMBOLI

Jockey McTaggart's Mount Lands Municipal Stake in Great Sprint with Roamer.

New York, Sept. 4.—A two-horse race, a gruelling grind between Stromboll, the chestnut runner, and the great Roamer, over the mile and a half, was the feawas the Municipal Handicap, and Stromboli won by little more than a head, through the great riding of Johnny McTaggart. His dash to the wire made Butwell, who had the mount on Roamer, look like an amateur. Butwell had the race won until the last sixteenth, when McTaggart hooked up with him. From then on it was a question of riding and the cleverer jockey won.

Time, 1:0145. Conowingo, Wat, Thistle Queen, Innocent Inez, Ripoeta, Marion Wilson, Sleety Sam, and Beaumont Lady also ran.
